

Mr V.N. Shukla
Director (IT),
Election Commission of India

Mr V.N. Shukla has about 38 years of Experience in Electronic & IT research, Project Planning and software Development. Shukla has performed various assignments in NLP Digital Library and large database Management System. His work in machine translation system is well known. He was member secretary of National Committee on Language Technology chaired by Minister Department of Information Technology, Ministry of Communication and Information Technology.

Presently, he is working as Director(IT) in Election Commission of India and has implemented IT solutions in Electoral Roll Management, Knowledge Management, NVSP, ERO Net, ETPBS etc. He has been able to streamline database of 912 million voters of India and provided e- services with a powerful search engine.. He was also a member of National Committee on e-voting and alternative voting for Non Residential Electors, Military professionals and Govt officials to enable them to vote through internet .He was also managing EVM .He was responsible for managing multilingual dynamic portal for dissemination of trends and results on counting day, which observed 16 billion hits in a day.

He is life member of India Society of Technical Education, Fellow member of IETE and Member IEEE.

Dr Seema Shukla

Dr Seema Shukla has more than 20 years in academia. Currently she is working in JSS Academy of Technical Education, Noida as Associate Professor in the Department of Information Technology. Her research interests include Artificial Intelligence, Machine Learning and Natural Language Processing in which she has published a number of papers. She has had substantial experience in organizing national and international events such as International Conferences and Workshops and Smart India Hackathons. She was an editor in the Springer's Communications in Computer and Information Science book series – Proceedings of International Conference on Cognitive Computing and Information Processing. She is life member of IETE and Member IEEE.

