

---

TERI conducted training programme at local level for Self Help Group members on mushroom farming, which is one of the most economically grown crops that have a significant market demand.

---

---

Distributed goat produced 2-3 kids which improved their income generation capacity.

---

---

Goats of a high breed species were distributed among farmers, who also undertook an orientation programme on best practices in goat rearing.

---

---

A range of 8 types of Improved Agriculture tools (TATA agrico) were provided to 1,250 farmers to improve their efficiency. These tools are of common usage and high quality.

---

---

Farmers were trained to use System of Rice Intensification (SRI) in cultivation which increased their average yield by a significant 30 percent.

---

---

Fish Fingerlings were distributed in 10 villages covering 41 ponds.

---

---

Project initiation planning by involving all stakeholders - BDO Neturia, Vice Chancellor Birsa Agricultural University, Ranchi Director Institute of Forest Productivity, Ranchi, Dr. Syed Arif Wali, TERI, New Delhi during Inception Workshop at Ranchi.

---