

THANE

Case study area

- 704 households interviewed
- Sample of 22 villages were surveyed
- 12 rural villages (221hh)
- 7 semi-urban villages (241hh)
- 3 urban villages (242hh)

Role of the Household in small economic activities

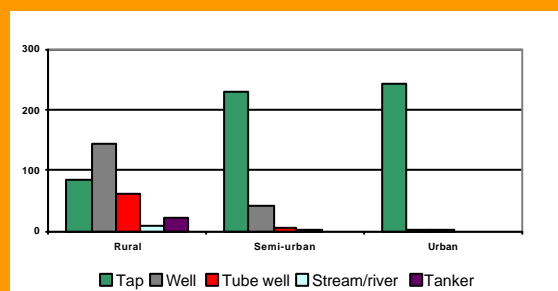

- 99% of the households don't have industry activity
- 34% of the households have agricultural land
- Among these, 98% of the head of households are landowners

Household income

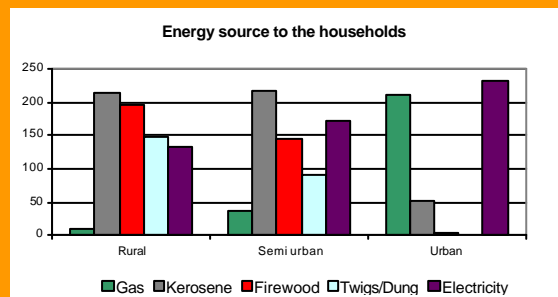

- The tertiary sector is the source of the highest incomes in the different villages
- The primary sector income is very significant in the rural villages

The annual average income per capita in urban villages is 182% higher than in rural villages

Water use

- The tertiary sector is the source of the highest incomes in the different villages

Energy

- The tertiary sector is the source of the highest incomes in the different villages