

Story Telling Guidelines

1. The story must be unique and should fall in the category of the topic of ICDL 2019 and it should be able to raise issues and discussion in the group.
2. It shouldn't be published on any other site, blog or social platform before or after you submit it to ICDL 2019 website. Once it is posted on our website, its link could be shared by you.
3. There isn't a strict word limit, but the length of the story must be 500-1000+ words and should be plagiarism free.
4. Your story title should not be more than 60 characters.
5. Please include headers, if appropriate, to break your article into smaller sections.
6. Number of authors of the story could be between one to three.
7. Supporting photographs/graphs can be included in the story.
8. Article can contain one do-follow link.
9. Duration of video should be 2-5 minutes only. It should be uploaded on YouTube and a link should be provided.
10. Administrator will not approve your story if it is not appropriate to the ICDL topics or can also send it for revision.
11. Please read the terms and conditions carefully before uploading your story.

If you seek any query, please reach out to ICDL Secretariat at icdl@teri.res.in.