

PROFILE OF ASHOK KUMAR CHAUHAN

Mr. A.K. Chauhan heads the Engineering & Proposals Division of VA Tech WABAG Limited, Northern Region, based at Regional Office in Delhi. WABAG is a pure play water technology company with over 9 decades of experience in water treatment including design, engineering, operations and maintenance of treatment projects for both the municipal and industrial sectors. A multi-national, with a strong presence in over 20 countries and over 100 patents to its credit, WABAG is today recognized as the market leader in water and wastewater treatment in India.

As Head of Engineering & Proposals, he is responsible for implementation of advance technologies, continuous improvement in engineering methodology of the projects, plants' commissioning and technical support for plants under operation of WABAG. One of advance technology projects like Municipal Wastewater treatment plant at Bahrain have been commended by Global Water Intelligence at its Global Water Summit in 2016.

Mr. Chauhan is one of the key members of Global Technology Taskforce Committee formed by WABAG to leverage latest state-of-the-art technologies available in the water & wastewater sector. He is a key member of WABAG Knowledge Management System, ensuring implementation of latest technology, continuous improvement in WABAG projects. He also represented WABAG at the various international fora.

Mr. Chauhan is a Post Graduate in Environmental Technology and possesses more than two decades of rich experience in this field internationally. Prior to WABAG, Mr. Chauhan worked in Russia on a Complex Wastewater treatment Project for OAO Gazprom as Project Management & Implementation.

Chauhan A K

Head – Engineering & Proposals Northern Region