

Dr Debal C Kar
Librarian, Ambedkar University
Delhi

Dr. Debal C Kar, University Librarian, Ambedkar University Delhi, has thirty two years of experience in the field of Library and Information Science (LIS), Prior to AUD he was Fellow, Area Convenor/Librarian at TERI. He holds a Master Degree in Philosophy and PhD in Library and Information Science. He was recipient of Endeavour Executive Fellowship 2014 from Government of Australia and worked as Visiting Fellow at University of Technology, Sydney, Australia. He was also recipient of scholarship by Belgium Govt. (ABOS) and worked as Visiting Associate at Faculty of Pharmacy, Vrije University Brussels, Brussels.

He wrote about 25 articles, gave 50 invited talks/presentations in International conferences, and chair sessions and edited 18 books/proceedings. He has been privileged to receive a number of awards recognizing his achievements like SLA Fellow and other. He was founder editor of World Digital Libraries - an International journal (2008-2012). He served as president of SLA Asian Chapter in 2008 and 2017. Country visited with professional assignment – Bangladesh, Sri Lanka, Nepal, Singapore, Thailand, Hongkong, Philippines, Indonesia, Malaysia, Macaw, Switzerland, Belgium, Germany, France, UK, Estonia, Italy, Netherlands, Canada, Australia and USA.