

Professor Dr. Md. Nasiruddin
Dean,
School of Undergraduate Studies
National University,
Bangladesh

Professor Dr. Md. Nasiruddin, graduated in 1992 and post-graduated in 1993 with first class from University of Dhaka in Information Science and Library Management. At present, he is working as a Dean, School of Undergraduate Studies, National University, Bangladesh. He is also the head of the Department of Library and Information Science and the Advisor of the Central Library of National University as well. As an Editor of the Journal, he is publishing “The National University Journal of Humanities, Social Sciences and Business Studies” and “The National University Newsletter.” since 2014.

He started his career as a Faculty in the Department of Information Science and Library Management in Rajshahi University in 1997. From July 2000 to December 2003 he was the Head of the Department. He has worked in UNDP, UNFPA, WTO-BFTI, MIDAS, Concern Worldwide and other reputed international organizations as a Communication and Information Consultant of the different development projects like-Education, Livelihoods, Health, Disaster Management, HIV/AIDs and so on since 2002. In 2000, he has received IFLA/ALP attachment scholarship for One month both in Thailand and Singapore and attached in Srinakharinwirot University at Bangkok and National University of Singapore. He has published more than 48 research papers in various international and national journals. In 2015, in Colombo at Sri Lanka, his paper has achieved best award out of 25 countries. The title of the paper was “Libraries for changing lives of the sex workers: A new approach for socially disadvantaged people in Bangladesh.” The National and International media covered this news.

He is the Senate, Syndicate and Academic Council Member of the National University, Bangladesh and life member of Library Association in Bangladesh and has been working as a Country Representative in IOCOM (International Organization for Collaborative Outcome Management) from the year 2016.