

Dr. Neelotpal Deka
Advocate
Gauhati High Court

Hold five master degrees – LL.M. (in Cyber Law & Intellectual Property Law with Research Method Training, supported by an Access to Learning Fund from the Norwich Law School, UK), Master of Business Law (National Law School, Bangalore), Master in Social Works (MSW), M.A. (English Literature) and Master of Communication & Journalism (Gauhati University) – after he graduated from the prestigious Cotton College. The University of Gauhati has conferred him Ph.D. for his research work on Legal and Constitutional Protection of Traditional Knowledge of Indigenous Peoples of North-East India.

He worked with the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, New Delhi (Legal & Protection Unit) and International Committee of the Red Cross, South Asian Delegation (International Humanitarian Law Department) during the early part of his professional career.

Presently, the author is an Advocate of the Gauhati High Court. He has been a Visiting Faculty in the Indian Law Institute (New Delhi), Indian Academy of International Law (New Delhi), TATA Institute of Social Sciences, Cotton University, Gauhati University, Assam University, Asian Institute of Management and Technology, Assam Institute of Management, etc.