

Ms Safurat Balogun
Head of Library Services
Goethe-Institut
New Delhi

Ms Safurat Balogun holds a degree in Social Sciences and Social Policy from University of Siegen, Germany. In an unprecedented career change, she joined Goethe-Institut Nigeria, the country of her birth, as the head of library and information, where she curated several influential projects including Literary Crossroads, Food Crossroads, Children Literature project and the Limbe to Lagos Nonfiction Workshop that produced an anthology, the first of its kind, of Nonfiction writing from Nigeria and Cameroon. She also organized the annual Library Conference series together with the American center. She is currently the head of library services at Max Mueller Bhavan New Delhi.