

Dr. Partha De joined Indian Institute of Technology (ISM) Dhanbad as Deputy Librarian in the year 2000. In 2002, he became the Head of the Central Library of IIT(ISM) Dhanbad. Presently, he is the adviser (Special Projects) to Director at IIT(ISM) Dhanbad. Before that he was associated with the biggest industrial house of India - the TATA group for nearly six years and served the group as the Chief Librarian of TATA Chemicals Limited from 1995 to 2000. He was awarded CSIR scholarship for doing Associateship in Information Science (AIS) course of INSDOC (presently NISCAIR). Before being awarded with the Ph.D degree, he had completed Post Graduate Diploma in Computer Science and Management (PGDCSM) and also obtained certificate, diploma, bachelors and masters degree in Library and Information Science. As the Librarian of IIT(ISM) Dhanbad he has conducted many workshops. He has attended various selection committee meetings as expert member. He was nominated as an external expert of the "Geetanjali-Net" the campus-wide fibre optic network project of Visva Bharati University, Santiniketan and had successfully completed the project. Since last few years, he is taking practical examination of Library and Information Science of plus two levels as CBSE practical examiner. He has also been appointed by various universities as practical examiner of BLIS and MLIS courses. He has presented a number of research papers in various national and international conferences and published articles in reputed journals. He has authored two books. The latest one titled "RFID in libraries: theory and practice". He is also the Senior First Aid Certificate Holder of "St. John's Ambulance Association".