

Sanjay Kataria

University Librarian,

Bennett University, UP

With more than two decades (20+ years) of rich and fulfilling work experience, Dr. Kataria is presently working as University Librarian, Bennett University (Times of India Group), Greater Noida since August 2016. Prior to Bennett University, he served at Jaypee Institute of Information Technology (Deemed University), Noida and Banasthali University (Deemed University), Rajasthan. Dr. Kataria has contributed about 35 research papers in reputed journals, International Conferences and has also written/edited more 10 books/ conference proceedings. Dr. Kataria is on board of several prestigious national and international Journals as editor and member. He has been invited by several Institutes in India and abroad to deliver keynote addresses and has delivered invited talks. He conceptualized ETTLIS (International Symposium on Emerging Trends and Technologies in Libraries), an international platform for sharing global best practices of librarianship, which was held for the first time in 2008 and consequently in 2010, 2012, 2015 and 2018.

He is recipient of several International Fellowships and Awards including Commonwealth Professional Fellowship in 2012 at Middlesex University London and 2017 at University of East London UK, AN Marappan Memorial National Best Young Librarian Award 2009, SATKAL Young Librarian Award in 2012, Recently, he was honored by Madhya Pradesh Library Association for the University Librarian of the Year (2019) Award for his professional and scholarly contribution globally.