

Dr Shantanu Ganguly

Fellow

Knowledge Management Division

TERI

Dr Shantanu Ganguly is a professional incumbent with a profound knowledge in implementation of Knowledge Management system. He has served various reputed organisations and Institutions in the last 25+ years. At present working as the Fellow in the Knowledge Management Division of TERI. Recipient of “Roll of Honour” for outstanding contribution in the organization. An active speaker at various forums and conferences.

Shantanu has handled several leading projects of TERI. He has been an integral part of the projects of bi-lateral, multi-lateral and government bodies, in setting up their knowledge management systems, database management systems and devising communication strategy and content management. He has also developed several Professional Development Programmes, and given a new dimension to the capacity building programmes. An excellent communicator in Infopreneurship, Knowledge Management, Business Communication Strategy, Project Management and Social Media Marketing and Digital Marketing.