

Prof. Akhtarul Wasey (Born in 1951 at Aligarh, Uttar Pradesh, India) is an academician social activist and a man of letters he has completed his education from the world-famous Aligarh Muslim University and later on shifted to Jamia Millia Islamia as a faculty. Where he had served for almost more than three decades most significantly as a full-fledged University professor since last 25 years.

Prof. Wasey was conferred Padma Shri by the honourable President of India in 2013. Fourth highest civilian award of the country.

Professor Wasey has also worked as Commissioner Linguistic Minorities of India a constitutional authority under article 350 B.

Prof. Wasey was selected for the award of Fulbright fellow ship in the year 2008.

He was also selected in 2000 to visit USA under International leadership visit program (ILVP).

He is a noted scholar of Islamic studies, he has 37 books on Islam, Muslims, mysticism and contemporary issues to his credit as author, editor and translator.

Prof. Wasey is currently working as President (Vice Chancellor) of Maulana Azad University, Jodhpur, Rajasthan.