

Trade, Technology and IPR Dimensions of Energy Use and Climate Change Final Dissemination Workshop

13th December 2013

Venue: Magnolia Hall, India Habitat Centre, New Delhi

---

Agenda

- |                   |  |
|-------------------|--|
| 10.00-10.30 am    | Registration  |
| 10.30-10.35 am    | Welcome - Dr. Ligia Noronha, TERI  |
| 10.35-10.45 am    | Introductory remarks- Mr. Prabir Sengupta, TERI  |
| 10.45-10.55 am    | Opening remarks - Counselor Mr. Håvard Hugås,Norwegian Embassy   |
| 10.55-11.10 am    | Introduction to the study- Mr. Nitya Nanda, TERI   |
| 11.10-11.30 am    | Coffee break  |
| 11.30 am-13.00 pm | Session I Carbon barriers to trade: issues and challenges(Chair : Mr. Prabir Sengupta, TERI)  |
|                   | This session would flag the key issues and challenges confronting developing countries like India with respect to the imposition of carbon barriers to trade, as emanating from the research findings of the TERI study and the perspectives of key stakeholders. Mr. Souvik Bhattacharjya and Mr. Saswata Chaudhury, TERI Dr. Duke Ghosh, Jadavpur University Prof. C. Veeramani, IGIDR |
| 13.00-14.00 pm    | Lunch   |

14.00- 15.30 pm

Session II IPR issues and transfer of climate friendly technologies to developing countries

(Chair: Dr. Prodipto Ghosh, TERI)

This session would deliberate on the key findings of the TERI study on the issue of IPRs as a barrier to technology transfer on the basis of analysis of domestic IPR regimes of select Asian countries and firm level case studies, and provide a platform for stakeholders to express their views on this contentious issue.

Dr. Indrani Barpujari, TERI

Dr. Neeti Wilson, Anand and Anand Law Associates

Prof. Yogesh Pai, National Law University

Interventions

Dr. S.S. Singh, Delhi Patent Office

Mr. Shirish Garud, TERI

15.30- 15.45 pm

Coffee break

15.45-16.45 pm

Session III Resolving trade, technology and IPR issues and devising a way ahead

(Moderator: Mr. Nitya Nanda, TERI)

This session would discuss perspectives on resolving the issues pertaining to carbon barriers and IPRs in a manner which enables developing countries to reconcile their interests with international commitments.

Ms. Nidhi Srivastava, TERI

Ms. Sunita Sreedharan, SKS Law Associates

Prof. Dinesh Abrol, Institute for Studies in Industrial Development

Mr. Pranav Kumar, CII

Mr. T. M. Gopa Kumar, Third World Network

16.45-17.00 pm

Closing remarks and vote of thanks