

TERI's Building Science Training Centre in Bangalore is organising a 3-day programme for engineers and architects from across the country with the aim to meet the shortage of trained manpower to undertake sustainable construction and green buildings in the country.

3- Day Training and Capacity Building Programme Performance Evaluation Tools for Sustainable Buildings

28th-30th November 2018 | Pune

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

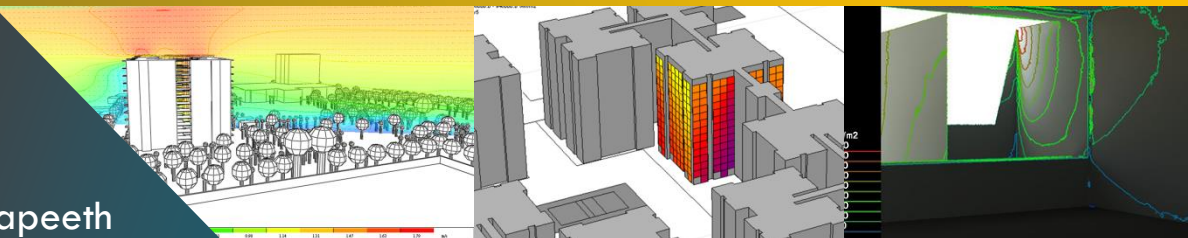

Architects, MEP Engineers, Contractors, PMC Consultants, PHE Engineers, Civil Engineers, Structural Engineers, Technical Heads, Researchers, Academicians, Graduate Students, Government Officers, ULB officials

SESSIONS

- ▶ Overview and Concepts of Sustainable Development
- ▶ Codes and Standards in India
- ▶ Sustainable Site Planning
- ▶ Analysis of Natural Ventilation and Airflow
- ▶ Concepts of Dynamic Daylight Metrics and Simulation
- ▶ Design and Simulation of Efficient Artificial Lighting
- ▶ Design and Simulation of Efficient Cooling Systems
- ▶ Life Cycle Analysis & Life Cycle Cost Analysis

VENUE

Bharati Vidyapeeth
College of Architecture,
Dhanakwadi Campus, Pune

Registration fee:

Early bird offer
INR 18,500 (until 20th Nov)

INR 21,500 (21st Nov onwards)

*inclusive of GST

For Registration, Contact:

Vini Halve, (M. 9168669660)

Email: vini.halve@teri.res.in

Fee Includes lunch on all 3 days. Participation
Certificates and Course Material will be provided